

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America, Inc. ®
National Honorary Member Award
2018-2019 National Award Guidelines

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America, Inc. (FCCLA) honors people whose professional responsibilities are not directly related to FCCLA, who have made outstanding contributions and who are giving continuing service to the national organization.

The Mission of FCCLA is to promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences education. Focusing on the multiple roles of family member, wage earner, and community leader, members develop skills for life through: character development, creative and critical thinking, interpersonal communication, practical knowledge, and career preparation.

The Purpose of FCCLA is:

- to provide opportunities for personal development and preparation for adult life
 - to strengthen the function of the family as the basic unit of society
 - to encourage democracy through cooperative action in the home and community
 - to encourage individual and group involvement in helping achieve global cooperation and harmony
 - to promote greater understanding between youth and adults
 - to provide opportunities for making decisions and for assuming responsibilities
 - to prepare for the multiple roles of men and women in today's society
 - to promote family and consumer sciences, careers and related occupations
