STAR Event Specifics
STAR Events Guide	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ The STAR Events Guide can be found by going to fcclainc.org and logging in to your portal. Then, click on resources, then competitive events, then click on the 2020-2021 Competitive Events Guide. ★ NEW THIS YEAR: On the STAR Events Guide, be sure you and your students are following the virtual competition requirements.
Baking and Pastry & Culinary	Nationals has made some major changes to the Culinary Arts and Baking and pastry STAR events. Both are an individual events. The selection process for Nationals will be as follows. They will select the top three students in the state and administer an industry assessment. The top 10 scores in the Nation will compete in a lab setting at National Conference. The state will implement a similar approach. A student who wish to participate at Regions will be competing an industry assessment. The top two scores per regions will move on to state. Each school is still allowed two teams, which are now individuals in each competition.

Advancing to State	<ul style="list-style-type: none">★ Help your students make it to state! Students will NOT ADVANCE to state in March if they do not have a score of 50 points or higher. We are searching for more quality projects, and rewarding students for good effort.★ Please follow the STAR events manual carefully. These guidelines are there to help you and your students. If you do not have a STAR Event manual, it may be downloaded from the national website www.fcclainc.org. Look under Programs; Competitive Events; STAR events. You may download individual STAR events to print if you do not want to print the whole manual.★ There has been a change with the STAR Events Online Project Summary Form. It is now available in the National FCCLA Portal, located on the "Surveys" tab. See the email from Nikki Sue for more information!★ State Conference is on March 23rd and 24th this year, more information will come as we get closer.
